**Says Rosser Suit Is, Absurd and Amoust Due Imagianry. Replying to an article appearing vesterday in The Times-Dispatch, Mr. William J. Payne, against whom a suif for $219,000 has been flied in the United States District Court by David M. Rosser of Kingston. Pa., vesterday made the following statement.

**Without reflecting in the slightest upon the altorneys. Messys. Scott, Buchanan and Cardwell, who are merely acting, as they informed me, under the instructions of a Pennsylvania artorney, the suit of Rosser against me its simply absurd. This person purchased certain bonds and stock of the Virginia Anthracite Coal Company about eighteen months ago, which was largely brought about by one of the company's principal stockholders in Pennsylvania in consideration of which he was elected manager of the company.

"He agreed to pay $25,000 for said stock and bonds." The local amount he incompleted the instructions of the company.

"He agreed to pay $25,000 for said stock and bonds. The total amount he paid was only $10,000. His notes for the balance are past due and unpaid, and this suit is an effort to have the $10,900 returned to him and he be relieved from paying his notes, because of the delay during the recent parie in completing the financing of the company.
